

Paul Hohnen has worked intensively on sustainable development issues over a 45-year career. Paul's experience includes working as:

- A consultant to government on sustainability and corporate social responsibility (CSR) issues. Clients have included ministries in Austria, Canada, Finland, Germany, Sweden, The Netherlands, and the UK
- A senior adviser to intergovernmental organisations including the UN Environment Programme (UNEP), the UN Industrial Development Organisation (UNIDO), the UN Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), the UN Global Compact, and the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD)
- A consultant on sustainable & responsible finance to Henderson Global Investors (London) and the UNEP Finance Initiative (Paris)
- Associate Fellow of the Royal Institute for International Affairs (Chatham House, London)
- A consultant, speaker, panelist and/or moderator for diverse international corporations including Accenture (US), Broadview (NL), Cap Gemini (NL), Coca Cola (US), Deutsche Telekom (Ger), DSM (NL), DNV (Italy), Hager (Fra/Ger), Heineken (NL), Henderson Group (UK), Johnson & Johnson (US), KWS Saat (Ger), Nokia (Fin), Shell (NL), SWIFT (Bel) and Vopak (NL)
- Consultant to and then Strategic Director for the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI)
- A Director of Policy for Greenpeace International, and consultant/speaker/moderator for Save the Children, Friends of the Earth, WWF and The Earth Charter
- A diplomat for the Australian Foreign Service